Note: Their will be separate sectional cut off.

- The interview may or may not be conducted depending upon the government of India guidelines.
- In case the interview is not conducted the selection will be made on the basis of score on mains exam only.
- In the case when interviews are conducted then the merit list will be prepared considering the score in mains exam as well as the interview.

Important Points

- As there was no interview for IBPS clerk so there is highly unlikely that there will be any interview for SBI clerk Exam.
- For the 1st time there will be separate time limit for the separate sections.
- Reasoning and computer sections are merged which will lead to high sectional cut off in this section. Also the weightage of this section is 60 marks higher than any other section.
- Final Year Students are eligible if they can get there final results before 30-06-2016.
